

Little Thrill

© John Hertz, 2005

1st verse:

Maybe it was just poor judgement
Based on faulty intelligence
It might have been a matter of timing
Or just a coincidence

I didn't know what I was thinkin'
But you said that you knew
And I wanted so bad to believe it
Though we knew it wasn't true

Refrain I:

Were you lookin' for an easy score,
Or were you lookin' for a little bit more?
Were you worried you were over the hill,
Or just lookin' for a little thrill?
Did you just have some time to kill
Lookin' for a little thrill

2nd verse:

I didn't know what I was lookin' for
And maybe neither did you
You had everything you thought you wanted
And I should have thought I did too

But what did I really want?
And what did you really know?
Were we really in control
Or just goin' with the flow?

Refrain II:

Was I lookin' to even the score,
Or lookin' for a little bit more?
Was I afraid I was over the hill,
Or just lookin' for a little thrill?
I just had a little time to kill,
And I was lookin' for a little thrill

(instrumental bridge)

Refrain III:

Were we lookin' for a little bit more,
Or just trying to run up the score?
Were we afraid we were over the hill,
Or just lookin' for a little thrill?
